

I was quite surprised over the weekend to hear "G--damn" twice on television. I realize it's cable, but I had no idea that USA and AMC would be allowed to air that verbal content. Even though I'm fairly open minded, I still hold onto values of respect and decency. I WILL be cancelling my cable. I certainly don't want to support public "trash talk" and all that it represents.

I am VERY disappointed that the FCC approves this.

Sincerely,

Toni Thompson
